

What You Need to Know About the Criminal Justice System When Your Special Needs Child Turns 18

Steps to Take to Avoid Traumatic Outcomes

The law firm of Holmes & Costin, PLLC will host a presentation by Lana Manitta, Esq., a local leader of the criminal defense bar with the law firm of Rich Rosenthal Brincefield Manitta Dzubin & Kroeger, LLP, on the topic of proactive steps that parents and guardians of young adults with mental disabilities can take to minimize misunderstandings between their special needs child and key personnel in the criminal justice system. This free presentation will also provide parents with an overview of criminal procedure, including a summary of the rights that parents and young adults have in the event of arrest or detention.
