

This child is autistic.

Autistic children may experience difficulty in certain situations that may cause them to exhibit undesirable behaviors. These outbursts often happen for no apparent reason and may be due to the child's inability to tolerate the present environment. The occurrence of these tantrums is a symptom of this condition and is not due to a lack of appropriate parenting skills.

For more information on autism, please visit the Parents Of Autistic Children – Northern Virginia Chapter (POAC-NoVA) web site at www.POAC-NoVA.org or call (703) 391-2251.
